

Dr. James Gray - Donald
Parent of Grade 4 Student

Jamie is Principal at Recursive Advisors, who help a range of companies to integrate sustainability into their core services. Jamie has a PhD in Adult Education and Environmental Studies and has lived and worked in the UK, Peru and the Philippines. He led sustainability at large global real estate companies QuadReal and Bentall Kennedy for 12 years. He can be spotted with a bright yellow, electrical assisted cargo bike dropping off his wonderful daughters at their different schools and daycares. His middle daughter found a home at Madrona and loves the challenge of advanced math.
