Gaëtan (Gates) joined the board in 2023. He is the acting Secretary and currently chairs the Marketing committee.

Gates has a 20-year background in software engineering and B.C. Sc from the University of Manitoba. He has also been a teacher and teaching assistant on topics as varied as dance, swim instruction and first-year calculus. And also a technical writer on sites such as Quora. Having finished a gauntlet of Silicon Valley startups, Gates is taking a short break from software and spending time volunteering on boards and working on open source software.

He spends his free time running tabletop roleplaying games such as D&D with both family and friends.
